Reserved seats for the Tahitian firewalking entertainment can now be had at Wall, Nichols & Co. It is advisable to get your seats early, as there will be a great demand for them. The doors will be open to the public at 7:30 o'clock.

On account of the day being a holiday there was no session of the police court yesterday. Judge Wilcox dismissed the attorneys present by telling them that all cases set for the day would be continued.

Honolulu Chapter No. 1, R. A. M., met last night.

Roy Chamberlain, the new collector, will arrive here about February 6th, and will assume the duties of the office on or about the 15th. Special Agent Bert M. Thomas, who was to have turned over the office to the new collector, has been ordered to report at San Francisco at once.

The police were busy yesterday rounding up the gamblers, and before night had succeeded in locating and arresting nine Chinamen and natives, who were engaged in the nefarious pastime of manipulating the ivory over the green cloth, in their favorite game of "crap."

Attorney E. B. McClanahan goes to the Mainland today with his wife and child. He has long waited the opportunity to take a vacation from his law practice, but the lengthened absence of his partner, S. M. Ballou, who only returned from the Coast a week or two ago, has prevented it. He will be gone some time.

Among the passengers for the Orient via the City of Peking yesterday, was J. Lovette Rockwell, recently of the Bulletin business office. Mr. Rockwell will be absent from Honolulu about two months, and will go to Manila during his trip, on a business venture in which a number of young men in this city are interested.

Kahani and Joseph Walsh, two natives, were arrested yesterday and brought to the police station, where the former was booked as a drunk, and the latter charged with assault. ## NOTES OF SHORT.

Association Football Saturday at Punahou and Makiki.

While England is opposing Iolani United at Punahou next Saturday afternoon, Scotland will play a game of association football against an eleven captained by B. F. Beardmore. The latter game, which will be played at Makiki, will commence at 4 o'clock. The following will do battle for the Thistles:

Goal, Pennick; backs, R. Anderson, J. McGill; halves, Lennox, Cockburn, Ushorne; forwards, Munro, Kay, Boyle, Guild and Catton.

On account of the temperance crusade, matters athletic at the Young Men's Christian Association have been practically suspended during the present week.

Oahu College will hold their spring athletic meeting on March 28th. It will probably take the form of a dual meeting, the other contestant being Kamehameha School. Oahu is credited with possessing some fine athletic material among her faculty, which has not yet been seen on the local cinder path.

The High School and Maile Ilma Athletic Club are steadily getting representatives into shape for the spring meeting and will be found freely prepared to assist in any athletic argument which may come up.

The strong northerly wind which prevailed yesterday afternoon was responsible for checking the bathing ardor of the habitués of the boat houses. A seaward swim was pleasant enough, but coming back in the teeth of the head-gale which was blowing was by no means an agreeable proposition.

Fishing is good just now off the new quarantine wharf, and natives who get down early in the morning are taking home nice catches of mullet. The best bait is bread kneaded into a moderately stiff paste. Mullet are at all times a very shy fish and in order to operate with any chance of success, one must fish fine and far off.

POSTOFFICE IMPROVEMENTS.

Stamp Window and Drop Letter Boxes in New Addition.

American methods in the arrangement of drop letter boxes were in vogue yesterday for the first time in the local postoffice. The large window in the "L" of the new addition, facing toward Merchant street, has been set apart for the dropping of all letters. There are openings lettered as follows: "United States, Foreign, Canada and Mexico;" "Islands—Except Honolulu." Below the slits for letters are the appropriate translations in Portuguese and Hawaiian. Chinese and Japanese translations are also prominent. At the lower end of the window are three openings for papers and packages.

The stamp window has also been removed to a window in the old building in a corner of the same "L," making it very convenient for postoffice patrons.

MANY ARRESTED.

Judge Wilcox Will Have a Big Grist To Grind Today.

The bookings for the past two days at the police station were as follows:

Home Rule Meeting.

The Independent Home Rule committee met in Foster hall Wednesday night but the session was very short. F. J. Testa presided. The principal matter discussed was that of filling the vacancy left by the resignation of J. F. Eckardt. The name of Edgar Cayless was proposed by Jas. Kaulia, the chairman of the committee, and this name was satisfactory. The name of Mr. Ozorio, a Portuguese, was proposed by F. J. Testa. Mr. Ozorio is an editor of a Portuguese paper here. The committee adopted the report of Mr. Kaulia and Mr. Cayless was declared to be a member.

Kenake to the Coast

Assistant Postmaster Louis T. Kenake leaves today on the China for the Coast. He will be gone a month. Mr. Kenake has worked ardently for many months getting Uncle Sam's affairs into shape and the trip will be a vacation as well as an opportunity to look into the free delivery system.
